SUIT AFTER DEATH

CLAIM AGAINST FAMOUS MILLIONAIRE RECENTLY DISCOVERED.

NEW VS. RANKIN ESTATE

Heirs of Mrs. Lillis New Ask Payment of Notes Amounting to $16,000 Payable at Rankin's Death.

The sensational lawsuit of Yuba New against the heirs of David Rankin, millionaire farmer, banker and philanthropist, who died at his home in Tarkio, Mo., October 18, 1910, will be called for trial at a special session of the Andrew county circuit court at Savannah in December. The case was taken to Savannah from Rock Port, the county seat of Atchison county, on a change of venue asked by the plaintiff, and was to have been taken up Wednesday.

Possibly not in the history of Northwest Missouri has there been a civil proceeding in court that has attracted such general attention and interest, and the case unquestionably will be one of the most hotly contested legal battles ever fought in this part of the state.

Yuba New, a young farmer, who was born and reared on one of the numerous big Rankin ranches in the vicinity of Tarkio, is seeking to recover from the David Rankin estate $16,000 on three promissory notes purporting to have been given his mother, Mrs. Lillis New, whose death preceded that of Rankin by several years, and who was Rankin's special friend and one of his teñants.

Mr. Rankin was twice married and is survived by his widow and three children—two sons and a daughter—offspring of the first union. Both sons live at Tarkio, and the daughter is the wife of a San Diego, Cal., business man.

Mrs. Lillis New was a business woman, who for a number of years immediately preceding her death was manager of one of David Rankin's big farms. She is said to have had remarkable executive ability and was comely; a widow considerably the junior of Rankin, who was 84 at his death. Mrs. New was generally regarded by the residents of Tarkio and vicinity as the millionaire's "affinity," but in letters left by him acknowledging his warm friendship for the widow, he disclaimed any improper relations with her and declared that she was of irreproachable character.

In letters left by Rankin it appears to have been his belief that Mrs. New would outlive him, and it was his desire to make liberal provision for her. However, her death antedates his nearly ten years, and it was a long time before anything was found to inoicate to her children that she had any claim upon the farmer-banker. Several months before David Rankin's death, according to the attorneys for the New heirs, there was a casual meeting of the millionaire and Yuba New, when Rankin is alleged to have asked New what he had done with "the notes."

"What notes?" New says he asked.

"Why, those notes I made to your mother," is said to have been Rankin's reply. "You'll find them if you search and they'll be good some day. I can't last much longer."

Following the old man's advice, search was made, and the plaintiff's petition recites that in a tin box that had been placed by Mrs. New in the vault of one of the Tarkio banks, the existence of which was not known to her children, three promissory notes for a total of $16,000 were found. The discovery, according to New's petition, was not made until some time after Rankin's death.

Soon after Rankin died the purported notes were presented to W. F. Rankin, administrator of his father's estate, for collection and were repudiated. Yuba New, as adminstrator of the estate of Mrs. Lillis New, then brought suit against the Rankin estate in the circuit court of Atchison county, at Rock Port, to recover $16,000 and accrued interest.

Since the filing of the suit the attorneys for the New heirs say they have come into possession of a number of letters bearing upon the case written by David Rankin. These letters are addressed to the Rankin children and acknowledging the validity of the notes in question. Photographic copies of the letters have been made and exhibited by New's attorneys. They declare that experts who have compared them with the handwriting of David Rankin say that the writing is that of the same person.

Following are copies of the photographed letters, one dated fourteen years ago and the other more than ten years ago:

Tarkio, Mo., Sept. 1, 1907.—My Dear Children: I will write you a letter than you will not see until after my death. I want you to know the life I have lived with Mrs. Rankin. You know I made a marriage contract. She has always contended that her children should share equal with my children. I thought not, that is why I made the marriage contract—so my children would have what is justly due them, as your mother did all she could to help make it. When she could not rule me she treated me badly. I have had the life of a dog. She never speaks unless it is in a cold manner. Let her tell it, I never did a good act. When I want a sensible chat I go and chat with Mrs. Phillips. I spend many a lonesome night in my room alone. I often read until midnight before I go to sleep, and her in her room asleep.

At this point the letter breaks off and there is no signature, but New's attorneys say the writing, which is in pen and ink and on the letter head of the First National bank of Tarkio, is unmistakably that of the late David Rankin.

The other letter is on plain paper, and bears the signature, "D. Rankin." It follows:

Tarkio, Mo., Jan. 1, 1901.—Dear Children, Nettie A. Hanna, John A. Rankin and William F. Rankin: I write this letter as my parting request, that you may know how I feel in certain matters of interest to me. While I made a home with Mrs. Rankin, it has been a very cold, lonesome home. I have never received from her what I think I should in the way of sensible treatment. I have spent many a lonely, wearisome hour for the want of a sensible companion. I have read myself to sleep many a night. But there is one woman on this earth who has been all the pleasure that she could be in every way that was honorable, and is a pure and virtuous woman. But I have caused some remarks to be made about her that were a great injustice to her and her family, for she is not one who should be slightingly spoken of, and she never asked for one cent in her life. I always wanted to be well treated, and Mrs. New and family have treated me like I was a lord in some home. I made all business propositions to her, and urged her to take notes, and through the dealings have found her honest and agreeable, and worthy of all I have bestowed on her. I have made one note September 24, 1909, for $4,000, and one January 1, 1901, for $6,000. I earnestly request that these notes be paid. I feel it my duty to confess to my children that she is my ideal woman. D. RANKIN.

Following is a copy of one of the alleged notes upon which the News base their suit:

Tarkio, Mo., Sept. 1, 1897.—At my death, for value received, I promise to pay to Lillis New or order, the sum of six thousand dollars, with 6 per cent interest from maturity, payable at Tarkio, Mo. Interest payable annually. This note is given in payment of a valid and existing indebtedness growing out of business transactions, a settlement in accordance with the terms of this note. D. RANKIN.

Up to this time the only answer to the petition of New by the Rankin heirs has been a general denial of the allegations. It is admitted by them that Mrs. New and the elder Rankin had extensive business dealings with each other. However, Mrs. New kept a set of books in which detailed accounts of her business transactions were chronicled, and the defense maintains that if there had been any notes given her by David Rankin, or any contract made, mention of it would appear in the books.

FAINTED IN COURT

PLAINTIFF IN PARTITION SUIT OVERCOME WHILE ON STAND.

THE CASE WAS SETTLED

Paving Cases Continued to Next Term —Decree for Plaintiffs in Several Equity Cases.

Samuel K. Landfather of White Cloud township, fainted on the witness stand in circuit court late Wednesday afternoon, and it took several minutes for him to revive. Dr. C. T. Bell was called and attended him.

Landfather was the plaintiff in the partition case of Samuel K. Landfather vs. Thomas M. Landfather, which was being tried Wednesday afternoon before Special Judge W. H. Crawford. When Landfather took the witness stand he appeared to be somewhat excited or nervous, but he answered all questions put to him. When being cross-examined by W. A. Blagg, one of the attorneys for the defense, Landfather suddenly fell back in his chair and fainted, but he came to a few minutes later. Court adjourned at once until Thursday morning.

The Landfather case was settled out of court Thursday, and it looks as if the fainting of Mr. Landfather resulted in the parties getting together and the case being compromised.

The paving cases of the city of Maryville to the use of the Mortgage and Debenture company, against Frank Barmann, Mattie E. Wade, J. Ed Costello, John B. Cox, Oliver P. Wade, Martha E. Smith, Edith Stultz, Frank G. Shoemaker and Sarah Stride were all continued until the next term of court.

A decree was given to the plaintiff in the perfect title suit of Robert O'Bannion vs. Belle Royal, et al.

In the partition case of Cora E. Guinn et al. vs. John F. Godsey, judgement and a decree of sale was given by the court as prayed for.

The case of S. H. Williams, collector, against Malinda E. Goslee, back tax, was dismissed by the plaintiff.

A decree for the plaintiff was given in the perfect title suit of Lewis J. Davidson vs. unknown heirs of Thomas Crew, deceased.

In the perfect title suit of John E. Farmer vs. unknown heirs of Thomas Crew, deceased, the court, after hearing the evidence, gave a decree for the plaintiff.

A decree was also given by the court for the plaintiff in the perfect title suit of Samuel K. Baker and Addie Baker vs. unknown heirs of Elijah Gibbs.

Prosecuting Attorney Wright dismissed a number of criminal cases Thursday. They were against James Mulholland and Doc Hinkley. They were indicted by the February grand jury on a charge of gaming, and since the prosecuting witness has moved out of the state, the cases have never been tried and it was thought best to dismiss them.

Two other cases that were dismissed were those against Tobe Bear and Walter Smith. They entered a plea of guilty before Justice Morris' court recently and were fined.

Court adjourned at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon until Friday morning.

The Tarkio team arrived Wednesday night and are in fine condition for the game. Dilly Thomas, the captain and star right forward, is a nephew of Dr. D. J. Thomas of this city.

The Tarkio squad is composed of Thomas, Ewing, Logan, Hill, McPherson, Peterson and the referee, Gowdy. As tonight's game will be the first game for the Normal team, Coach Moore will no doubt make several changes in the line-up during the game, but the game will start with the following line-up: H. Seymour, right forward; Perrin, left forward; Mitchell, center; McGrew, right guard; McClintock, left forward.

The announcement in the social column of this paper Tuesday concerning the First M. E. church bazaar, in which it was stated that the bazaar would be held November 16-17 was a mistake. The bazaar will be given Thursday and Friday, November 23-24. We hope no inconvenience has been caused by the misstatement.

Was Guest of Son.

Mrs. J. A. Friend of Burlington Junction was in Maryville Wednesday evening between trains, the guest of her son, E. W. Friend. Mrs Friend was returning home from Hopkins, where she visited her son, William Friend, and her daughters, Mrs. Allen Andrews and Mrs. Dr. Cossins. She also attended the sixty-third birthday anniversary celebration of Mr. George L. Andrews, father-in-law of her son, and a daughter, given by Mrs. Andrews at the family home, west of Hopkins. Mr. Andrews was given many handsome presents, and the feature of pleasantry for the day was a handkerchief and sock shower he received. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Louise Rosencrans of Yukon, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Grace and Mrs. Ellen Grace of Sheridan, Mrs. J. A. Friend of Burlington Junction and E. W. Friend of Maryville.

The subject for discussion was "What is Hospitality?" and the discussion lasted throughout the afternoon. The club had three guests, Mrs. Halbert Catterson and her son and daughter. During the serving the hostess was assisted by little Miss Mariam Catterson. The club members present were Mrs. J. C. Farrar, Mrs. M. A. Ramsey, Mrs. W. O. Garrett, Mrs. Kemp. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Nicholas.

Helped Their Sick Neighbor.

The spirit of brotherly love and kindness isn't near dead yet, as some folks may think. The neighbors of Mr. Alva Pride, a well known and respected farmer living five miles northeast of Maryville, met at his home Tuesday of this week and shucked 750 bushels of corn for him. Mr. Pride has been sick from a stroke of paralysis and his neighbors got to thinking the matter over and concluded to do by him as they would be done by if they should be so unfortunate as he. While the men of the company were busy at work, four of the women of that neighborhood, Mrs. Henry Howard, Mrs. Albert Howard, Mrs. Forrest Dowden and Mrs. Andrew Pride, prepared and served a nice dinner at the Pride home. Those who shucked the 750 bushels of corn were Henry Howard, Albert Howard, Andrew Pride, Forrest Dowden, Frank Pride, Joseph Farrar, Elbert Dowden, Albert Robinson, Jesse Dowden, Clarence Dowden, Earl Adams, Fred Pride, John Neal, Ernest Jones, John Shrock, George Wright, Ray Taylor, Dale Partridge.

Penelope Club With Mrs. Braniger.

Mrs. R. S. Braniger entertained the Penelope club at her home Wednesday afternoon. While working at their embroidering or other handwork the members made plans for their christening party to be given Friday night, December 1st, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Gault. The club has been organized but a month or so, and they intend giving the party and invite their husbands and friends, for the purpose of properly christening the new club. Dominoes were played at the Wednesday meeting after the working hour. Two new members were voted in, Mrs. J. A. Lesh and Mrs. John W. Airy. The other members present were Mrs. John Murrin, Miss Charlotte Murrin, Mrs. W. H. Frankum, Mrs. Omar Catterson, Mrs. R. H. Duncan, Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mrs. John Herron, Mrs. L. E. MRS. ROBB'S FUNERAL FRIDAY.

Burial Service Will Be in Charge of P. E. O. Sisterhood.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. J. F. Robb of Hopkins will be held at the Robb home, in East Hopkins, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. T. Walter of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Burial will take place in Hopkins cemetery, under the auspices of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, of which organization Mrs. Robb had been a faithful member for years.

Mrs. Robb's son, Edwin F. Robb, a freshman at the state university at Columbia, arrived in Maryville on the early Wabash train Wednesday morning, accompanied by Fred Wolfers of Pickering, a law student at the university. They were met in Maryville by Roy Wolfers of Pickering in the Wolfers car, who took them to the young man's home in Hopkins. When the news of his mother's death reached Columbia Tuesday evening, Mr. Robb could not be located for awhile, but was found at a picture show in company with some other students, and as the proprietor of the show could not allow a call to be made for him during the picture display, Mr. Wolfers and Mr. Robb had but six minutes in which to reach their train when the show was over.

MET IN NEW ROOMS.

The Two Christian Associations at the Normal in Their Own Quarters.

The Young Women's and Young Men's Christian association meetings were of unusual interest at the Normal Thursday morning, as the meetings were held for the first time in the regular association rooms. The Y. M. room is on the second floor and the Y. W. room is located on the third floor. The new mission furniture has arrived for both the association rooms and for the chapel stage, and the transformation in both is remarkable.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting was also very interesting, as the result of a splendid talk by Mrs. Lesh, wife of Prof. J. A. Lesh of the Normal faculty. Mrs. Lesh's subject was "The College Girls' Temptations."

The young men listened to an address by Rev. Lee Harrel on "The Power of Truth in the Human Life." The talk was a very practical one and was highly entertaining.

WILSON SENTENCED

GETS THREE YEARS IN PEN FOR STEALING TEAM.

M'CRARY WAS PAROLED

After Receiving Sentence of Six Months in County Jail, Conception Man is Shown Mercy.

C. W. Wilson pleaded guilty to a grand larceny charge Thursday morning in circuit court before Judge Ellison and was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary. He will be taken to the pen by Sheriff Tilson as soon as this term of court is over.

Wilson engaged a team at Kellogg & Goforth's livery barn at Barnard during the latter part of September and didn't return it. He drove the team to the farm of Albert Carr, south of Maryville and represented to Mr. Carr that he was a son of Ed Bilby of Quitman, and that he was out buying stock. He stayed at Mr. Carr's home that night, and on the next day came to Maryville with Mr. Carr and was arrested at Gray's sale pavilion by Sheriff Tilson, who had been looking for him a day or two. The team of horses and buggy was recovered at the Carr farm, where it was left by Wilson.

Wilson told the court Thursday morning that he was 21 years old and that he was born in Chicago. His parents died while he was young, and since that time he has been drifting around from place to place.

H. H. McCrary, who was sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday by the court, was paroled Thursday morning for good cause shown and on paying the costs in the case. McCrary had trouble with Phillip Kaufman of Conception Junction over a bill and McCrary beat him up.

WATER SERVICE OFF.

Shut Off Wednesday Afternoon On Account of Bursting of a Pipe.

The water service was cut off Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock on account of a two-inch pipe bursting that feeds the boilers at the pump house. While it was thought at first that it would not be necessary to cut off the service, it was found that the men could not work to repair it with the water on. So the service was cut off and was not restored until about 12 o'clock last night.

Manager Roseberry of the water company said Thursday: "It was an unavoidable accident and it might occur in any plant, either old or new."

Flint, Mich, Rheumatic Cure Attracts From Mt. Clemens—Fuss Has Made a Splendid Record in an Exceedingly Short Time.

Flint, Mich., is becoming famous as the home city of a new cure for rheumatism which has been used with such success as to attract attention from all over the country. The new medicine is called "Fuss." T. C. Millard, manufacturer of the remedy, when seen at his residence, 525 Harrison street, Flint, Mich., admitted that the new cure had made a great record in a short time.

"We have had patients come here from Mt. Clemens and other cities where they had failed to get relief," he said, "and the medicine has cured them. Fuss goes to the root of the disease. It operates upon every portion of the body. It dissolves and eliminates the poison from the system; it invigorates the muscles, and limbers the stiffened joints. It acts upon the liver and kidneys, removing from them all irritants, restoring them to perfect health and regularity."

Among the large number of testimonials, Mr. Millard exhibited the following: C. K. Herndon, Maryville, Mo., says: "This may certify that I have taken Fuss for rheumatism and I believe it is the best remedy for this disease in the market today. I have been to Mt. Clemens three times and St. Louis once within the past 15 years, but did not receive much relief. Last October a friend told me to try Fuss. I have taken three bottles this winter and I am now 100 per cent better than I have been for fifteen years."

TO HUNT BANDIT GANG.

Citizens of Rosendale Are Aroused Over Series of Robberies.

Efforts will be made by an armed posse to run down a gang of robbers that has been operating near Rosendale during the last few weeks. Bloodhounds are on the way from Beatrice, Neb., and with their arrival the work of the posse will begin.

Tuesday night the hardware store of Bales & Beecher and a general store owned by W. W. Wells were entered. At the hardware store the men obtained about $500 in promissory notes and money. A considerable quantity of merchandise also was taken. At the Wells store they did not obtain any money, but a large amount of merchandise is missing. The outer door of the safe at the hardware store had been left unlocked last night and the inner door was found broken open when the store was opened for business this morning. The men entered the building by a back door, using a skeleton key. This is the second time within two weeks that the Wells store has been entered. Merchandise formed the principal loot obtained at the previous robbery.

According to local officials there is not one clew upon which they have to depend. In their opinion, however, the work is that of local talent.

WOULD AMEND SHERMAN LAW

Representative Henry of Texas Proposes to Add a "Stinger."

IMPRISONMENT FOR OFFENDERS

Bill to be Introduced Definitely Defines a Trust and Legislates So-called "Rule of Reason" From Statute.

Washington, Nov. 16.—"Felons stripes," as a punishment for "trust criminals," in the United States to end "commercial piracy under benevolent 'rules of reason,'" are proposed in a bill amending the Sherman anti-trust law drafted by Representative Robert L. Henry of Texas, to be introduced in the house upon the opening of congress next month. Its introduction probably will mean its passage in the house.

The bill specifically defines just what constitutes a trust, legislates from the present statute the "rule of reason," as interperted by the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco decisions, and provides as punishment for violation of the law imprisonment from two to ten years in the penitentiary. In explaining his bill, Representative Henry declared that actual imprisonment of great industrial offenders was essential to a cure for the trust evil, and that a law to be rigid, must of necessity define a trust to leave no room for controversy.

"My bill," said Mr. Henry, "nullifies the alterations written into the Sherman anti-trust act by the unwarranted and purely legislative decision of the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases of last spring. That is, the bill legislates the 'rule of reason' out of the law and it defines specifically what a trust is, so that there can be no room for controversy. It makes the violation of this law a felony with imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than ten years.

"My bill justly exempts 'members of organizations or associations not for profit and without capital stock, and also agricultural products or live stock in the hands of the producer or raiser.'"

The proposed bill amends the first three sections of the Sherman act, leaving as they are Sections 4 to 8, inclusive, and adding two new sections.

Sections 2 and 3 of the Sherman act providing against monopolization or conspiracy in restraint of trade within the United States or with foreign nations are amended to include the penitentiary punishment for violation instead of the present provisions for a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

Leaders will confer on the bill as soon as the members assemble late this month, and it is their purpose to make the bill one of the foremost on the legislative program for the regular session.

SAVERS OF BABIES CONVENE

Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality in Session at Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The saving of city and county babies by modern scientific means, by education rather than by temporary assistance only, is being discussed here by the American association for the study and prevention of infant mortality, whose annual convention is now in session. One of the leading topics is to be the importance of visiting nursing, and on this subject the association will hear from Mrs. Amy Hughes, general superintendent of the Jubilee institute, London. Another distinguished foreign visitor here is Miss M. Loane, one of the best known social workers and writers of Great Britain. The reports of infant welfare associations in various parts of the country show that the campaign of education has resulted in a marked decrease in the death rate among babies.

Communication

About Oil Prospecting.

Mr. Editor: I see in last week's paper some one has named the three best places, in his opinion, to prospect for oil. It appears that the only reason he has given is because he went out in the middle of the farm many times and greased his shoes. He does not say whether he greased his shoes in the other two places or not, but it is supposed he did.

Now, my "old man" always greased his shoes in the house by the kitchen stove, but if it will make a good place to prospect for oil, I will have him go out in the middle of the farm to grease his shoes after this, or down on the creek bottom that is in front of our house. If you see any of the oil men you may tell them so.—One Who is Interested in Oil.

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad aftereffects. Try it. Price 25c.

SUIT AFTER DEATH

CLAIM AGAINST FAMOUS MILLIONAIRE RECENTLY DISCOVERED.

NEW VS. RANKIN ESTATE

Heirs of Mrs. Lillis New Ask Payment of Notes Amounting to $16,000 Payable at Rankin's Death.

The sensational lawsuit of Yuba New against the heirs of David Rankin, millionaire farmer, banker and philanthropist, who died at his home in Tarkio, Mo., October 18, 1910, will be called for trial at a special session of the Andrew county circuit court at Savannah in December. The case was taken to Savannah from Rock Port, the county seat of Atchison county, on a change of venue asked by the plaintiff, and was to have been taken up Wednesday.

Possibly not in the history of Northwest Missouri has there been a civil proceeding in court that has attracted such general attention and interest, and the case unquestionably will be one of the most hotly contested legal battles ever fought in this part of the state.

Yuba New, a young farmer, who was born and reared on one of the numerous big Rankin ranches in the vicinity of Tarkio, is seeking to recover from the David Rankin estate $16,000 on three promissory notes purporting to have been given his mother, Mrs. Lillis New, whose death preceded that of Rankin by several years, and who was Rankin's special friend and one of his tenants.

Mr. Rankin was twice married and is survived by his widow and three children—two sons and a daughter—offspring of the first union. Both sons live at Tarkio, and the daughter is the wife of a San Diego, Cal., business man.

Mrs. Lillis New was a business woman, who for a number of years immediately preceding her death was manager of one of David Rankin's big farms. She is said to have had remarkable executive ability and was comely; a widow considerably the junior of Rankin, who was 84 at his death. Mrs. New was generally regarded by the residents of Tarkio and vicinity as the millionaire's "affinity," but in letters left by him acknowledging his warm friendship for the widow, he disclaimed any improper relations with her and declared that she was of irreproachable character.

In letters left by Rankin it appears to have been his belief that Mrs. New would outlive him, and it was his desire to make liberal provision for her. However, her death antedates his nearly ten years, and it was a long time before anything was found to indicate to her children that she had any claim upon the farmer-banker. Several months before David Rankin's death, according to the attorneys for the New heirs, there was a casual meeting of the millionaire and Yuba New, when Rankin is alleged to have asked New what he had done with "the notes."

"What notes?" New says he asked.

"Why, those notes I made to your mother,' is said to have been Rankin's reply. "You'll find them if you search and they'll be good some day. I can't last much longer."

Following the old man's advice, search was made, and the plaintiff's petition recites that in a tin box that had been placed by Mrs. New in the vault of one of the Tarkio banks, the existence of which was not known to her children, three promissory notes for a total of $16,000 were found. The discovery, according to New's petition, was not made until some time after Rankin's death.

Soon after Rankin died the purported notes were presented to W. F. Rankin, administrator of his father's estate, for collection and were repudiated. Yuba New, as adminstrator of the estate of Mrs. Lillis New, then brought suit against the Rankin estate in the circuit court of Atchison county, at Rock Port, to recover $16,000 and accrued interest.

Since the filing of the suit the attorneys for the New heirs say they have come into possession of a number of letters bearing upon the case written by David Rankin. These letters are addressed to the Rankin children and acknowledging the validity of the notes in question. Photographic copies of the letters have been made and exhibited by New's attorneys. They declare that experts who have compared them with the handwriting of David Rankin say that the writing is that of the same person.

Following are copies of the photographed letters, one dated fourteen years ago and the other more than ten years ago:

Tarkio, Mo., Sept. 1, 1907.—My Dear Children: I will write you a letter than you will not see until after my death. I want you to know the life I have lived with Mrs. Rankin. You know I made a marriage contract. She has always contended that her children should share equal with my children. I thought not, that is why I made the marriage contract—so my children would have what is justly due them, as your mother did all she could to help make it. When she could not rule me she treated me badly. I have had the life of a dog. She never speaks unless it is in a cold manner. Let her tell it, I never did a good act. When I want a sensible chat I go and chat with Mrs. Phillips. I spend many a lonesome night in my room alone. I often read until midnight before I go to sleep, and her in her room asleep.

At this point the letter breaks off and there is no signature, but New's attorneys say the writing, which is in pen and ink and on the letter head of the First National bank of Tarkio, is unmistakably that of the late David Rankin.

The other letter is on plain paper, and bears the signature, "D. Rankin." It follows:

Tarkio, Mo., Jan. 1, 1901.—Dear Children, Nettie A. Hanna, John A. Rankin and William F. Rankin: I write this letter as my parting request, that you may know how I feel in certain matters of interest to me. While I made a home with Mrs. Rankin, it has been a very cold, lonesome home. I have never received from her what I think I should in the way of sensible treatment. I have spent many a lonely, wearisome hour for the want of a sensible companion. I have read myself to sleep many a night. But there is one woman on this earth who has been all the pleasure that she could be in every way that was honorable, and is a pure and virtuous woman. But I have caused some remarks to be made about her that were a great injustice to her and her family, for she is not one who should be slightingly spoken of, and she never asked for one cent in her life. I always wanted to be well treated, and Mrs. New and family have treated me like I was a lord in some home. I made all business propositions to her, and urged her to take notes, and through the dealings have found her honest and agreeable, and worthy of all I have bestowed on her. I have made one note September 24, 1909, for $4,000, and one January 1, 1901, for $6,000. I earnestly request that these notes be paid. I feel it my duty to confess to my children that she is my ideal woman. D. RANKIN.

Following is a copy of one of the alleged notes upon which the News base their suit:

Tarkio, Mo., Sept. 1, 1897.—At my death, for value received, I promise to pay to Lillis New or order, the sum of six thousand dollars, with 6 per cent interest from maturity, payable at Tarkio, Mo. Interest payable annually. This note is given in payment of a valid and existing indebtedness growing out of business transactions, a settlement in accordance with the terms of this note. D. RANKIN.

Up to this time the only answer to the petition of New by the Rankin heirs has been a general denial of the allegations. It is admitted by them that Mrs. New and the elder Rankin had extensive business dealings with each other. However, Mrs. New kept a set of books in which detailed accounts of her business transactions were chronicled, and the defense maintains that if there had been any notes given her by David Rankin, or any contract made, mention of it would appear in the books.

FAINTED IN COURT

PLAINTIFF IN PARTITION SUIT OVERCOME WHILE ON STAND.

THE CASE WAS SETTLED

Paving Cases Continued to Next Term —Decree for Plaintiffs in Several Equity Cases.

Samuel K. Landfather of White Cloud township, fainted on the witness stand in circuit court late Wednesday afternoon, and it took several minutes for him to revive. Dr. C. T. Bell was called and attended him.

Landfather was the plaintiff in the partition case of Samuel K. Landfather vs. Thomas M. Landfather, which was being tried Wednesday afternoon before Special Judge W. H. Crawford. When Landfather took the witness stand he appeared to be somewhat excited or nervous, but he answered all questions put to him. When being cross-examined by W. A. Blagg, one of the attorneys for the defense, Landfather suddenly fell back in his chair and fainted, but he came to a few minutes later. Court adjourned at once until Thursday morning.

The Landfather case was settled out of court Thursday, and it looks as if the fainting of Mr. Landfather resulted in the parties getting together and the case being compromised.

The paving cases of the city of Maryville to the use of the Mortgage and Debenture company, against Frank Barmann, Mattie E. Wade, J. Ed Costello, John B. Cox, Oliver P. Wade, Martha E. Smith, Edith Stultz, Frank G. Shoemaker and Sarah Stride were all continued until the next term of court.

A decree was given to the plaintiff in the perfect title suit of Robert O'Bannion vs. Belle Royal, et al.

In the partition case of Cora E. Guinn et al. vs. John F. Godsey, judgement and a decree of sale was given by the court as prayed for.

The case of S. H. Williams, collector, against Malinda E. Goslee, back tax, was dismissed by the plaintiff.

A decree for the plaintiff was given in the perfect title suit of Lewis J. Davidson vs. unknown heirs of Thomas Crew, deceased.

In the perfect title suit of John E. Farmer vs. unknown heirs of Thomas Crew, deceased, the court, after hearing the evidence, gave a decree for the plaintiff.

A decree was also given by the court for the plaintiff in the perfect title suit of Samuel K. Baker and Addie Baker vs. unknown heirs of Elijah Gibbs.

Prosecuting Attorney Wright dismissed a number of criminal cases Thursday. They were against James Mulholland and Doc Hinkley. They were indicted by the February grand jury on a charge of gaming, and since the prosecuting witness has moved out of the state, the cases have never been tried and it was thought best to dismiss them.

Two other cases that were dismissed were those against Tobe Bear and Walter Smith. They entered a plea of guilty before Justice Morris' court recently and were fined.

Court adjourned at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon until Friday morning.

READY FOR TARKIO.

Normal Basket Ball Team to Play Them Tonight.

The Normal squad took their last work-out Wednesday evening in preparation for the basket ball game with the fast Tarkio high school team tonight at the Normal gymnasium. The Tarkio squad is composed of Thomas, Ewing, Logan, Hill, McPherson, Peterson and the referee, Gowdy. As tonight's game will be the first game for the Normal team, Coach Moore will no doubt make several changes in the line-up during the game, but the game will start with the following line-up: H. Seymour, right forward; Perrin, left forward; Mitchell, center; McGrew, right guard; McClintock, left forward.

The announcement in the social column of this paper Tuesday concerning the First M. E. church bazaar, in which it was stated that the bazaar would be held November 16-17 was a mistake. The bazaar will be given Thursday and Friday, November 23-24. We hope no inconvenience has been caused by the misstatement.

Was Guest of Son.

Mrs. J. A. Friend of Burlington Junction was in Maryville Wednesday evening between trains, the guest of her son, E. W. Friend. Mrs Friend was returning home from Hopkins, where she visited her son, William Friend, and her daughters, Mrs. Allen Andrews and Mrs. Dr. Cossins. She also attended the sixty-third birthday anniversary celebration of Mr. George L. Andrews, father-in-law of her son, and a daughter, given by Mrs. Andrews at the family home, west of Hopkins. Mr. Andrews was given many handsome presents, and the feature of pleasantry for the day was a handkerchief and sock shower he received. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Louise Rosencrans of Yukon, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Grace and Mrs. Ellen Grace of Sheridan, Mrs. J. A. Friend of Burlington Junction and E. W. Friend of Maryville.

The subject for discussion was "What is Hospitality?" and the discussion lasted throughout the afternoon. The club had three guests, Mrs. Halbert Catterson and her son and daughter. During the serving the hostess was assisted by little Miss Mariam Catterson. The club members present were Mrs. J. C. Farrar, Mrs. M. A. Ramsey, Mrs. W. O. Garrett, Mrs. Kemp. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Nicholas.

Helped Their Sick Neighbor.

The spirit of brotherly love and kindness isn't near dead yet, as some folks may think. The neighbors of Mr. Alva Pride, a well known and respected farmer living five miles northeast of Maryville, met at his home Tuesday of this week and shucked 750 bushels of corn for him. Mr. Pride has been sick from a stroke of paralysis and his neighbors got to thinking the matter over and concluded to do by him as they would be done by if they should be so unfortunate as he. While the men of the company were busy at work, four of the women of that neighborhood, Mrs. Henry Howard, Mrs. Albert Howard, Mrs. Forrest Dowden and Mrs. Andrew Pride, prepared and served a nice dinner at the Pride home. Those who shucked the 750 bushels of corn were Henry Howard, Albert Howard, Andrew Pride, Forrest Dowden, Frank Pride, Joseph Farrar, Elbert Dowden, Albert Robinson, Jesse Dowden, Clarence Dowden, Earl Adams, Fred Pride, John Neal, Ernest Jones, John Shrock, George Wright, Ray Taylor, Dale Partridge.

Penelope Club With Mrs. Braniger.

While working at their embroidering or other handwork the members made plans for their christening party to be given Friday night, December 1st, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Gault. The club has been organized but a month or so, and they intend giving the party and invite their husbands and friends, for the purpose of properly christening the new club. Dominoes were played at the Wednesday meeting after the working hour. Two new members were voted in, Mrs. J. A. Lesh and Mrs. John W. Airy. MRS. ROBB'S FUNERAL FRIDAY.

Burial Service Will Be in Charge of P. E. O. Sisterhood.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. J. F. Robb of Hopkins will be held at the Robb home, in East Hopkins, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. T. Walter of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Burial will take place in Hopkins cemetery, under the auspices of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, of which organization Mrs. Robb had been a faithful member for years.

Mrs. Robb's son, Edwin F. Robb, a freshman at the state university at Columbia, arrived in Maryville on the early Wabash train Wednesday morning, accompanied by Fred Wolfers of Pickering, a law student at the university. They were met in Maryville by Roy Wolfers of Pickering in the Wolfers car, who took them to the young man's home in Hopkins. When the news of his mother's death reached Columbia Tuesday evening, Mr. Robb could not be located for awhile, but was found at a picture show in company with some other students, and as the proprietor of the show could not allow a call to be made for him during the picture display, Mr. Wolfers and Mr. Robb had but six minutes in which to reach their train when the show was over.

MET IN NEW ROOMS.

The Two Christian Associations at the Normal in Their Own Quarters.

The Young Women's and Young Men's Christian association meetings were of unusual interest at the Normal Thursday morning, as the meetings were held for the first time in the regular association rooms. The Y. M. room is on the second floor and the Y. W. room is located on the third floor. The new mission furniture has arrived for both the association rooms and for the chapel stage, and the transformation in both is remarkable.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting was also very interesting, as the result of a splendid talk by Mrs. Lesh, wife of Prof. J. A. Lesh of the Normal faculty. Mrs. Lesh's subject was "The College Girls' Temptations."

The young men listened to an address by Rev. Lee Harrel on "The Power of Truth in the Human Life." The talk was a very practical one and was highly entertaining.

The examination of the building and surroundings is to be made at noon today under the direction of Judge Lucas. The direct charge of incendiaryism is made by the insurance company in the case and it was at the suggestion of L. C. Boyle, attorney for the insurance company, that the jury is to be given the privilege of seeing what remains of the building.—Kansas City Times.

WILSON SENTENCED

GETS THREE YEARS IN PEN FOR STEALING TEAM.

M'CRARY WAS PAROLED

After Receiving Sentence of Six Months in County Jail, Conception Man is Shown Mercy.

C. W. Wilson pleaded guilty to a grand larceny charge Thursday morning in circuit court before Judge Ellison and was sentenced to three years in the state penitentiary. He will be taken to the pen by Sheriff Tilson as soon as this term of court is over.

Wilson engaged a team at Kellogg & Goforth's livery barn at Barnard during the latter part of September and didn't return it. He drove the team to the farm of Albert Carr, south of Maryville and represented to Mr. Carr that he was a son of Ed Bilby of Quitman, and that he was out buying stock. He stayed at Mr. Carr's home that night, and on the next day came to Maryville with Mr. Carr and was arrested at Gray's sale pavilion by Sheriff Tilson, who had been looking for him a day or two. The team of horses and buggy was recovered at the Carr farm, where it was left by Wilson.

Wilson told the court Thursday morning that he was 21 years old and that he was born in Chicago. His parents died while he was young, and since that time he has been drifting around from place to place.

H. H. McCrary, who was sentenced to six months in the county jail Monday by the court, was paroled Thursday morning for good cause shown and on paying the costs in the case. McCrary had trouble with Phillip Kaufman of Conception Junction over a bill and McCrary beat him up.

WATER SERVICE OFF.

Shut Off Wednesday Afternoon On Account of Bursting of a Pipe.

The water service was cut off Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock on account of a two-inch pipe bursting that feeds the boilers at the pump house. While it was thought at first that it would not be necessary to cut off the service, it was found that the men could not work to repair it with the water on. So the service was cut off and was not restored until about 12 o'clock last night.

Manager Roseberry of the water company said Thursday: "It was an unavoidable accident and it might occur in any plant, either old or new."

BEATS THE BATHS.

Flint, Mich, Rheumatic Cure Attracts From Mt. Clemens—Fuss Has Made a Splendid Record in an Exceedingly Short Time.

Flint, Mich., is becoming famous as the home city of a new cure for rheumatism which has been used with such success as to attract attention from all over the country. The new medicine is called "Fuss." T. C. Millard, manufacturer of the remedy, when seen at his residence, 525 Harrison street, Flint, Mich., admitted that the new cure had made a great record in a short time.

"We have had patients come here from Mt. Clemens and other cities where they had failed to get relief," he said, "and the medicine has cured them. Fuss goes to the root of the disease. It operates upon every portion of the body. It dissolves and eliminates the poison from the system; it invigorates the muscles, and limbers the stiffened joints. It acts upon the liver and kidneys, removing from them all irritants, restoring them to perfect health and regularity."

Among the large number of testimonials, Mr. Millard exhibited the following: C. K. Herndon, Maryville, Mo., says: "This may certify that I have taken Fuss for rheumatism and I believe it is the best remedy for this disease in the market today. I have been to Mt. Clemens three times and St. Louis once within the past 15 years, but did not receive much relief. Last October a friend told me to try Fuss. I have taken three bottles this winter and I am now 100 per cent better than I have been for fifteen years."

For sale by Koch Pharmacy in Maryville and all leading druggists or receipt of $1.00 or six bottles for $5.00. Fuss Remedy Co., Flint, Mich.

Citizens of Rosendale Are Aroused Over Series of Robberies.

Efforts will be made by an armed posse to run down a gang of robbers that has been operating near Rosendale during the last few weeks. Bloodhounds are on the way from Beatrice, Neb., and with their arrival the work of the posse will begin.

Tuesday night the hardware store of Bales & Beecher and a general store owned by W. W. Wells were entered. At the hardware store the men obtained about $500 in promissory notes and money. A considerable quantity of merchandise also was taken. At the Wells store they did not obtain any money, but a large amount of merchandise is missing. The outer door of the safe at the hardware store had been left unlocked last night and the inner door was found broken open when the store was opened for business this morning. The men entered the building by a back door, using a skeleton key. This is the second time within two weeks that the Wells store has been entered. Merchandise formed the principal loot obtained at the previous robbery.

According to local officials there is not one clew upon which they have to depend. In their opinion, however, the work is that of local talent.

WOULD AMEND SHERMAN LAW

Representative Henry of Texas Proposes to Add a "Stinger."

IMPRISONMENT FOR OFFENDERS

Bill to be Introduced Definitely Defines a Trust and Legislates So-called "Rule of Reason" From Statute.

Washington, Nov. 16.—"Felons stripes," as a punishment for "trust criminals," in the United States to end "commercial piracy under benevolent 'rules of reason,'" are proposed in a bill amending the Sherman anti-trust law drafted by Representative Robert L. Henry of Texas, to be introduced in the house upon the opening of congress next month. Its introduction probably will mean its passage in the house.

The bill specifically defines just what constitutes a trust, legislates from the present statute the "rule of reason," as interperted by the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco decisions, and provides as punishment for violation of the law imprisonment from two to ten years in the penitentiary. In explaining his bill, Representative Henry declared that actual imprisonment of great industrial offenders was essential to a cure for the trust evil, and that a law to be rigid, must of necessity define a trust to leave no room for controversy.

"My bill," said Mr. Henry, "nullifies the alterations written into the Sherman anti-trust act by the unwarranted and purely legislative decision of the supreme court in the Standard Oil and tobacco trust cases of last spring. That is, the bill legislates the 'rule of reason' out of the law and it defines specifically what a trust is, so that there can be no room for controversy. It makes the violation of this law a felony with imprisonment for not less than two years nor mere than ten years.

"My bill justly exempts 'members of organizations or associations not for profit and without capital stock, and also agricultural products or live stock in the hands of the producer or raiser.'"

The proposed bill amends the first three sections of the Sherman act, leaving as they are Sections 4 to 8, inclusive, and adding two new sections.

Sections 2 and 3 of the Sherman act providing against monopolization or conspiracy in restraint of trade within the United States or with foreign nations are amended to include the penitentiary punishment for violation instead of the present provisions for a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

Leaders will confer on the bill as soon as the members assemble late this month, and it is their purpose to make the bill one of the foremost on the legislative program for the regular session.

SAVERS OF BABIES CONVENE

Association for Study and Prevention of Infant Mortality in Session at Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The saving of city and county babies by modern scientific means, by education rather than by temporary assistance only, is being discussed here by the American association for the study and prevention of infant mortality, whose annual convention is now in session. One of the leading topics is to be the importance of visiting nursing, and on this subject the association will hear from Mrs. Amy Hughes, general superintendent of the Jubilee institute, London. Another distinguished foreign visitor here is Miss M. Loane, one of the best known social workers and writers of Great Britain. The reports of infant welfare associations in various parts of the country show that the campaign of education has resulted in a marked decrease in the death rate among babies.

Bond Vote in Springfield.

Springfield, Mo., Nov. 16.—Springfield is voting on two bond propositions, one providing an expenditure of $600,000 for municipal water works and the other calling for the building of septic tanks for sewer improvements at a cost of $100,000. The defeat of both propositions is predicted by city officials.

Last Standard Oil Dividend.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Standard Oil company of New Jersey has declared a dividend for the last quarter of the year of $7 a share. This is the last dividend to be declared before the company dissolves under the mandate of the supreme court.

Kimmel Finds 36 Witnesses.

Niles, Mich., Nov. 16.—The taking of depositions to be used at the trial of the Kimmel insurance case at St. Louis is ended. Thirty-six witnesses have been sworn and all are more or less emphatic that the man released from Auburn prison in September is George A. Kimmel.

Communication

About Oil Prospecting.

Mr. Editor: I see in last week's paper some one has named the three best places, in his opinion, to prospect for oil. It appears that the only reason he has given is because he went out in the middle of the farm many times and greased his shoes. He does not say whether he greased his shoes in the other two places or not, but it is supposed he did.

Now, my "old man" always greased his shoes in the house by the kitchen stove, but if it will make a good place to prospect for oil, I will have him go out in the middle of the farm to grease his shoes after this, or down on the creek bottom that is in front of our house. If you see any of the oil men you may tell them so.—One Who is Interested in Oil.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.
